      Teachers must be able to write on chalkboards, and clearly communicate verbally to his/her students in the classroom
   b. Communicate data (attendance, student assessment, report cards, etc.)
      Teachers are required to prepare evaluation reports, fill in records, and on numerous occasions, communicate with parents in writing and on the phone.

4. Supervision
   a. Indoor Teachers must be able to actively supervise students within the classroom or in the gymnasium area. On occasion, faculty should participate with students in organized games and activities.
   b. Outdoor Teachers must be able to supervise students in their classroom or while outside. Teachers must also supervise students at the closing of each day as students are dismissed to their rides. Typical weather in our area includes very hot and humid weather with occasional rainstorms.

5. Emergencies
   a. Can summon help
      A teacher must be able to quickly summon help when an emergency arises either in the classroom, gymnasium, or other areas of the church or school.
   b. Can apply emergency first aid
      Teachers are required to render minimal first aid to students who may be injured while in the classroom, gymnasium, or other areas of the church or school.

6. Attendance
   Teachers are required to be present every weekday from 7:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m., unless otherwise specified by the school calendar, or administrator. Faculty members are required to attend scheduled staff devotions, faculty meetings and other special functions after school, and occasionally for meetings or other functions in the evening.

JOB DESCRIPTION - Supplemental Functions

The teacher shall

1. Supervise extra-curricular activities, organizations, and outings as assigned.
2. Utilize educational opportunities and evaluation processes for professional growth.
3. Provide input and constructive recommendations for administrative and managerial functions in the school.
4. Support the broader program of the school by attending extra-curricular activities when possible.
5. Perform any other duties, which may be assigned by the administration.
