PARTNERING WITH THE PARENTS

PARTNERING WITH THE PARENTS SEMINAR

The CCHS Spiritual Formation Department will host another Partnering with the Parents seminar focused on the topic of relationships, aligning with the current chapel theme, Holy Relationships. There will be two seminars on Wednesday nights, February 4th and February 11th, at Calvary Church's Clearwater Campus.

The Spiritual Formation Department would like to invite all CCHS parents and parental figures to attend. The sessions, led by Dr. Berhow and Mrs. Stanton, will be held in Café A from 6:30 PM to 8:00 PM, and dinner is provided for those who register. Parents can register here.

NATIONAL LETTER OF INTENT

Signing

CCHS will celebrate the National Letter of Intent signing of student-athletes on the Warrior football team on Wednesday, February 4th, at the Anderson Athletic Center. The athletes' coach will share about the players and the impact they have made on the Warrior football program. Congratulations to the athletes who will be recognized during the signing ceremony.

CCHS is pleased to announce that Dr. Tyler Nickel, a licensed chiropractor, is now providing chiropractic services to students through a partnership with the school. Dr. Nickel is a graduate of Liberty University and Palmer College of Chiropractic, and a current science teacher at CCHS. He values lifelong learning and brings an educator's perspective to his care, emphasizing patient understanding, movement, and overall function. His clinical focus includes diversified chiropractic adjustments designed to improve joint mobility and support physical performance and wellness. CCHS has partnered with Dr. Nickel to offer convenient, on-campus chiropractic services. He will provide care in the nurse's clinic as well as at The Rock, making services easily accessible, particularly for student-athletes who already utilize chiropractic care.

Chiropractic services are provided through Nickel Sport and Spine, and all payments are made directly to Dr. Nickel's practice. CCHS has simply extended the opportunity for Dr. Nickel to offer these services on campus for the benefit of students. Information regarding services, fees, and appointment scheduling is available on his website, and the first visit is free.

To schedule an appointment or learn more about Dr. Nickel, please visit the website below or scan the QR code on the attached flyer: <https://nickelsportandspine.janeapp.com/>
