

AP Spanish Summer Work

20 hour Spanish TV Log

Overview:

- Watch at least 20 hours of Spanish television over the summer and keep a TV log with dates, times, and descriptions.
- During the 8 weeks of summer, this should be approximately 2.5 hours per week.
- Watch a variety of different types of television, including news reports, documentaries, comedies, dramas, talk shows, sports, etc.
- If you do not have many Spanish channels on your cable service (Univision and Telemundo are the most common) you can watch TV via the internet (like YouTube) or a streaming service such as Netflix. If you're not sure what to watch or where to look, please just ask me if you need help finding something!
- Do not watch cartoons or tv that was not originally spoken in Spanish (For example, you may not watch a show or movie filmed in English and voice dubbed over in Spanish). The goal of this assignment is to help expose you to Hispanic culture as well as language.
- If you must use subtitles (not recommended), please do not use English subtitles. Set the subtitles to Spanish so that you are reading what you are hearing, or turn the subtitles off (recommended).

Assignment:

- Keep a log about what you watched in the format provided below.
- Type and double space your descriptions.
- You should average at least 100 words to describe each hour of television you watch. Therefore, the final document should be over 2000 words (20 hours x 100 words per hour) when complete. If you watch a 30 minute show, you should write at least 50 words. If you watch a 2 hour movie, you should write at least 200 words. Etc.
- If you reach the 2000 word count before you finish watching 20 hours, you are NOT finished! The assignment is to watch 20 hours of Spanish TV and write about it.
- Don't stress over this assignment – you do not have to comprehend every word that is spoken to be able to write an adequate synopsis about what you watched.
- Your goal is to grasp the general idea and expose yourself to a variety of vocabulary content, Hispanic culture, and different Spanish accents.

Grading:

- The television diary will be due the first day back to school and will be counted for a test grade for Quarter 1.
- Assessment: The student's work will be assessed on frequency of viewing (20 hours total!), grammatical correctness, and detail of summative statements.
- For a grade of A, a student will:
  - View an average of at least 2.5 hours of Spanish TV programming a week for each week in the summer (8 weeks total) for a total of 20 hours.
  - Accurately record the date, time started and ended, total time, channel name and number, name of show/movie, country (if applicable), and word count for all programs watched.
  - Display very few grammatical errors in diary entries.
  - Describe each program in intermediate level Spanish with detail that reflects one's complete viewing of each show (at least 100 words per hour watched).
